

AUSTRALIAN CLOTH DOLL CHALLENGE 2010

Challenge theme

“All The World’s A Stage”

The aim of the challenge is to provide an opportunity for dollmakers to display their creative skills and to present an overview to the general public and the cloth dollmaking world of the standard attained here in Australia. The dolls will be displayed and judged at the W.A. Craft, Quilt & Stitch Show to be held in Perth July 30th, 31st & August 1st 2010, at the Claremont Showgrounds. We hope that you will aim to extend your creative ability and be inspired by the challenge to reach beyond your normal boundaries and increase your skills. Please encourage others to enter the challenge.

Rules and Conditions of entry

1. The theme of this year’s challenge is “All The World’s A Stage” and may be interpreted in anyway you like. Creativity and originality are encouraged and interpretation of design criteria will be important in the judging. General skill and workmanship will be taken into account as a secondary factor. This is to be considered an artistic challenge – not a formal sewing competition.
2. Entries must not have been entered in any other competition.
3. Entries are to be cloth based and may incorporate mixed media.
4. Entries can be original or adapted from a pattern and may have human or animal features.
5. Each entry is to come complete with some sort of support e.g. a doll stand unless it can sit or stand unaided. Our aim is to display your entry to its best advantage.
6. All maker’s identification marks or labels must be removed or covered for the competition. You will be allotted a number after receipt of your entry money. This number is to be marked clearly on a piece of cloth with a permanent pen and attached to the bottom of the doll. e.g. Under one foot or on their bottom if sitting. All items accompanying the entry should also be clearly identified with this number.
7. Entries will be handled with the utmost care and the display will be supervised at all times but responsibility for insurance rests with the entrant. By entering the competition it is understood that organisers of the challenge and True Blue Exhibitions are released from all actions, proceedings, claims and demands arising from any loss or damage to goods whilst in the custody or under the control of the organisers.
