

Silk Road Challenge

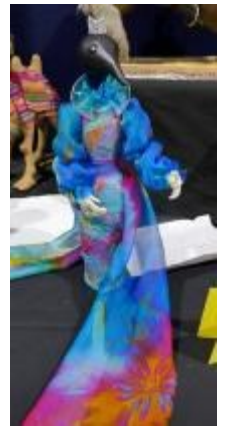

The Silk Road was a very challenging subject for this year's competition, and the entries reflected a number of interpretations. Their quality was superb, and the judges had a very hard task in deciding the winner.

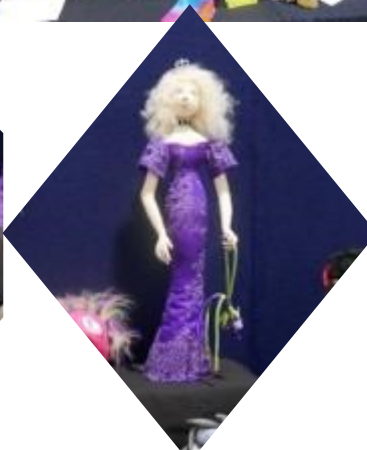

Clockwise, from top left: Judy Love, Bronwyn McDougall, Robyn Trefry, Delys Brady, Trudy Boyce, Robyn Trefry, and the last two by Pauline Groom.

The Challenge was won by Judy Love and Bronwyn McDougall won the Margaret Harrold Award.

Prizes will be presented at the August meeting, when the winner of the Viewer's Choice voting will also be announced.

Postcards From The Show

Our display at the Craft Show on the 4th-6th August was one of the biggest and best in recent years. Thankyou to all members who lent their dolls for the display, and to those who set it up and took it down and volunteered to represent and publicise Western Dollmakers over the three days.

Thanks also to Vivien Mortimore for once again excercising her photographic skills.
